Two events about film-making and local history in Brighton and Hove, including free refreshments/lunch (please see below). Everyone aged 50 and over is welcome to join us!

HK 50+ Film and Culture Club

1.30pm-4.30pm on 19th Sept 2022: "Royal Sussex"
Dr Frank Gray gives a guided tour of footage about Royal visits and celebrations by historic film-makers in Brighton, Hove and Sussex from the archive collection of Screen Archive South East at the University of Brighton. Includes the 1935 and 1977 Jubilees, the 1937 and 1953 Coronations, and communities coming together for the celebrations. Followed by free tea and cake and the chance to share your thoughts about the footage through the lens of "challenging ageism".

11am-2pm on 8th Dec 2022: "Brighton at War"
Dr Frank Gray gives a guided tour of war-time movies from Screen Archive South-East's collection, with film-makers in Brighton & Hove providing a glimpse of what living here was like during WWI and WWII. Includes rare surviving footage made during WWI of the King and Queen visiting the Royal Pavilion and the Indian Hospital, and WWII "home front" films of parades, Air Raid Precautions, bomb damage, Land Girls and VE Day celebrations. Includes free lunch and refreshments.

Held at St Richards Church and Community Centre, Egmont Road, Hove, BN3 7FP.

Places must be booked in advance. Please contact Clare Hopkins via 01273 410858 or clare.hopkins@hkproject.org.uk for more information.
